Message from the President of Conference

Rev. M.E. Besane –
President of Conference

Dear Members of the Bantu Methodist Church of S.A., Friends and all the members of the public, I greet you all in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Introduction

I write this letter to inform all the members of the Bantu Methodist Church of South Africa, friends and the public about the Scheme which is the brainchild of the Youth of our Church. In July 2011 during the Youth Conference, there was a topic about the Charismatic Churches against the Mainline Churches.

This led the Youth to resolve amongst other things that the Church should establish a Head Office, from which the Church administration will be run. This has been a dream for most of us if not all of us.

Establishment of the Volunteer Scheme

Establishing the Head Office requires resources i.e. funds, property, equipment and staff to mention a few. The Youth then proposed that the members of the Church should be asked to volunteer to do special donations in addition to the normal Church fees. This was accepted and adopted by the Youth of our Church.

To facilitate this project a Volunteer Scheme Committee was then elected. The Committee is made up of a member from each District and the Convenor is Mr M.Z. Hadebe the General Treasurer of Conference.

Conference Approval

The Youth then took this Resolution to the Conference and tabled it to the Conference. The Conference accepted and adopted the resolution and further adopted this Committee to be one of the Standing Committees of Conference. This will help the Conference to get reports annually and direct from the Committee rather than biannually via the Connexional Young Peoples Department.

This is therefore a priority project, where all the members of the Church, our dear friends, business people and the public at large are invited and encouraged to volunteer to contribute monthly a certain amount to the Church so that the Head Office can be established. A once of lump sum is also welcomed. The funds raised by this project will also take care of all the other critical matters of the Church, in the long run even paying the Ministers stipends. Those who volunteer will sign the Debit Order for the amount that they volunteer to contribute. We need to take our Church to the next level and without your contributions this dream won't be a reality.

I, Rev. M.E. Besane, the President of the Bantu Methodist Church of S.A. invite all the members of the Church, friends, business people and the entire public to participate in this scheme, and make it possible for this goal to be achieved.

May God bless you all.

Rev. M.E. Besane
